

INTERNATIONAL
COMPETITIONSDESIGN OF PLACE LALLA YEDDOUNA IN FEZ

“L’Agence du Partenariat pour le progrès (APP)” together with “l’Agence pour le développement et la réhabilitation de la ville de Fès (ADER-Fès)” launch a project competition in two stages, open to architects worldwide, for the urban planning of place Lalla Yeddouna in the medina of Fez, Morocco. Organised in conformity with the UNESCO-UIA regulations, the competition is organised under the auspices of the UIA.

This competition is part of a programme for the economic and social development of this sector through the development of its cultural, artisan and tourist potential. Place Lalla Yeddouna will serve in the future as a vibrant mixed-use hub for the community as well as for visitors to the medina. The preservation of the architectural and cultural heritage of the site, registered on the UNESCO world heritage list, is a fundamental aspect of the competition programme.

PRIZES

At the end of the first stage, the jury will select about eight projects the authors of which will be invited to participate in the second stage for which they will each receive a fee of 40 000 US$.

At the end of the second stage, the jury will award 3 prizes of the following amounts: 55 000 US$; 40 000 US$; 25 000 US$.

MAIN DATES

Submission of entries for the first stage	8 November 2010
Jury meeting:	14 December 2010
Submission of second stage entries	February 2011
Final jury meeting	March 2011

JURY

The jury will be composed of officials representing the Moroccan authorities and as well as of representatives of the United States of America and of the following architects: David Chipperfield, United Kingdom; Matthias Sauerbruch, Germany; Marc Angélil, Switzerland-USA; Meisa Batayneh Maani, Jordan; Stefano Bianca, Switzerland; Omar Farkhani, Morocco; Rodolfo Machado, USA-Argentina; .

PARTICIPATION

Registration for the competition will take place on the competition web site. The competition language is English. There is no registration fee.

INFORMATION AND REGISTRATION

<http://www.projectcompetition-fez.com>